About Institute of Engineering & Management

Institute of Engineering & Management (IEM) aims to provide an international ambience and exposure with innovative teaching techniques and courses which are tailor made (technical & soft skills) for the job market giving the students the winning edge and competitive advantage during placements.

Institute of Engineering & Management (IEM) maintains a strictly secular environment. No staff or student is allowed to demonstrate religious identity or religious practice inside the campus. Staff or student can, however, practice their faith outside the university campus during nonacademic hours and on university holidays. 9 am to 5 pm is academic hour except for Sunday. Sunday is a weekly holiday. Other holidays are available in the university holiday list published during the start of a new academic session.

The educational group believes that combination of good teachers and good students is the basic and most important aspect of achieving academic excellence. It is strength of our faculty consisting of professors from renowned institutes such as IIT Kharagpur and IIM Kolkata. We have academicians, professionals as well as dignitaries of the business world. The educational group is a true realm of the finest faculty members who has the spirit and standards to bring the best out of its students.

All round excellence in management and engineering discipline is attained only by close interaction with the allied industries. To facilitate close interaction of modern industries, as well as to draw upon the vast academic & professional resources of a vibrant industrial sector.
