About Rangia College

Established Rangia College as a premier institution of higher education has rendered pioneering services to the extensive local community predominantly comprising of tribal people notably Bodos, Tea tribes and the minority communities in addition to socially and economically challenged segments of society.

The college was founded on 5th August, 1963 by a group of visionaries under the inspiring leadership of Late Siddhinath Sarma. It is worthwhile to mention that the destiny of the college was guided at its crucial years by none other than Sri Birendra Nath Bordoloi, the illustrious son of the illustrious father, Bharat Ratna Late Gopinath Bordoloi, the first Chief Minister of post independent Assam. During the sixty years of its existence, the college has made significant progress in fulfilment of its avowed objective of imparting higher education in Arts, Science and Commerce to a substantially large section of students belonging to socially and economically backward groups of the area.

We have a vision of turning this institution of semi-urban base into a Centre of Excellence in a decade's time by elevating its academic status also look forward to augmenting its infrastructural base with amenities like an Auditorium, a mini sports complex and hostel accommodation for boys and girls. Today we have strength of over 3000 students, 77 faculty members and 41 non-teaching staff. And we are also proud to state that the college earned B++ rating in 2004 and B grade with CGPA of 2.80 in 2010 during NAAC reaccreditation.
